Meet Our Leaders

Dr. John Ed Mathison

Dr. John Ed Mathison retired in June 2008, after 36 years as Senior Pastor of Frazer Memorial United Methodist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. In July 2008, Dr. Mathison and a board of directors established the John Ed Mathison Leadership Ministries, which will involve preaching, teaching, conferences and seminars. The purpose of the ministry is to train pastors and lay persons to be leaders impacting the world for Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God. The ministry website, www.johnedmathison.org gives a full description of this ministry.

Dr. Steve Seamands

Dr. Stephen Seamands currently serves as professor of Christian Doctrine at Asbury Theological Seminary. The son of missionary parents, Steve grew up in India. Steve is known for gracefully merging the classical and the practical. He is the author of several books including Christology and Transition in the Theology of Edwin Lewis; Holiness of Heart and Life, A Conversation with Jesus, Wounds that Heal: Bringing Our Hurts to the Cross and Ministry in the Image of God: The Trinitarian Shape of Christian Service. He has also written articles for various journals and magazines. In addition to teaching and working with seminary students, He has a particular interest in theological and spiritual renewal within the United Methodist church as well as the larger body of Christ. He also has a deep concern for the spiritual needs of pastors and Christian leaders.
